About the Event

On 31st August 2024, the KLH National Service Scheme (NSS) units hosted an orientation program for the Y24 batch of freshers. The event was designed to introduce new students to the principles, goals, and activities of NSS, aiming to instill a sense of social responsibility and encourage participation in societal welfare initiatives alongside their academic journey.

Keynote Address by Varun Sharma

The program commenced with a dynamic keynote speech by Varun Sharma, who effectively highlighted the mission and significance of NSS. He detailed how the organization nurtures social service, civic responsibility, and leadership skills in students.

Varun Sharma's address focused on the NSS motto, "Not Me, But You," emphasizing the collective impact volunteers can have on society. He shared inspiring success stories of past NSS initiatives and outlined plans for the upcoming academic year. His speech motivated students to actively engage in community service projects, rural development activities, and awareness campaigns.

Inspiring Speeches by Faculty Members

The event featured enlightening talks by two esteemed faculty members, Dr. M.P. Mallesh and Dr. B. Chandrasekhar, who further motivated the attendees.

Dr. Mallesh underscored the importance of integrating academics with service, encouraging students to balance their studies with meaningful contributions to society. He stressed that NSS plays a crucial role in shaping responsible citizens capable of addressing real-world challenges. Dr.

Chandrasekhar highlighted the lifelong benefits of participating in NSS. He elaborated on how skills such as teamwork, leadership, and time management, gained through NSS, positively influence both personal and professional growth. His speech inspired students to view NSS as an opportunity for holistic development.

Key Activities and Conclusion

The orientation also showcased NSS’s diverse range of activities, including:

Community Service Projects: Initiatives to support underprivileged communities.

Awareness Campaigns: Programs to spread knowledge on critical issues like health, environment, and education.

Rural Development Initiatives: Efforts aimed at improving rural living conditions.

The event concluded with an interactive Q&A session, where freshers enthusiastically engaged with speakers to learn more about NSS. This session clarified doubts and encouraged students to join as volunteers.

Outcome

The orientation successfully sparked enthusiasm among the Y24 batch, motivating many students to register as NSS volunteers. It set the stage for a year filled with impactful service activities, aligning perfectly with the NSS’s mission to foster community engagement, leadership, and social responsibility among students.
