About the Event

The first-ever NSS Student Community Meet, titled "NOT ME, BUT YOU!", was successfully conducted at CBIT, Hyderabad. This event marked a significant milestone for NSS units across institutions as it brought together student volunteers, coordinators, and unit officers to share experiences, exchange ideas, and strengthen the spirit of the National Service Scheme.

Objective

The summit aimed to foster collaboration among NSS units from different colleges, showcase their achievements, and inspire further engagement in community service activities. It also sought to emphasize the importance of patriotism and social responsibility among students.

Program Overview

Introduction to NSS Committees

Students from our college delivered a comprehensive presentation on the structure and functions of NSS committees. They explained how these committees operate and contribute to fostering teamwork, leadership, and a sense of responsibility among volunteers.

Role of NSS Coordinators and Unit Officers

The roles and responsibilities of NSS Coordinators and Unit Officers were highlighted. Their contributions in guiding students, organizing activities, and inculcating patriotism and community service values were acknowledged and celebrated.

Showcase of Activities

Hyderabad , R.R. Dist- 500075.

Our students presented an overview of the diverse initiatives undertaken by the NSS units of our college during the academic year. Activities included:

Cleanliness Drives: Organized under the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan to promote hygiene and sanitation.

Environmental Programs: Tree plantation and awareness campaigns.

Health Awareness: Blood donation drives and health education programs.

Community Outreach: Surveys, support for underprivileged communities, and educational drives.

Collaboration and Feedback

The meet provided an interactive platform for sharing ideas and strategies. Participants from other colleges shared feedback and insights, leading to a fruitful exchange of approaches to community service and NSS activities.

The event was widely appreciated by participants from other colleges and received positive feedback for the organization and quality of presentations. Our students were commended for their commitment, creativity, and impactful initiatives.

Conclusion

The first NSS Summit successfully achieved its goals of collaboration, learning, and inspiration. It reaffirmed the NSS motto, "Not Me, But You," by showcasing the power of selfless service and the importance of community engagement.
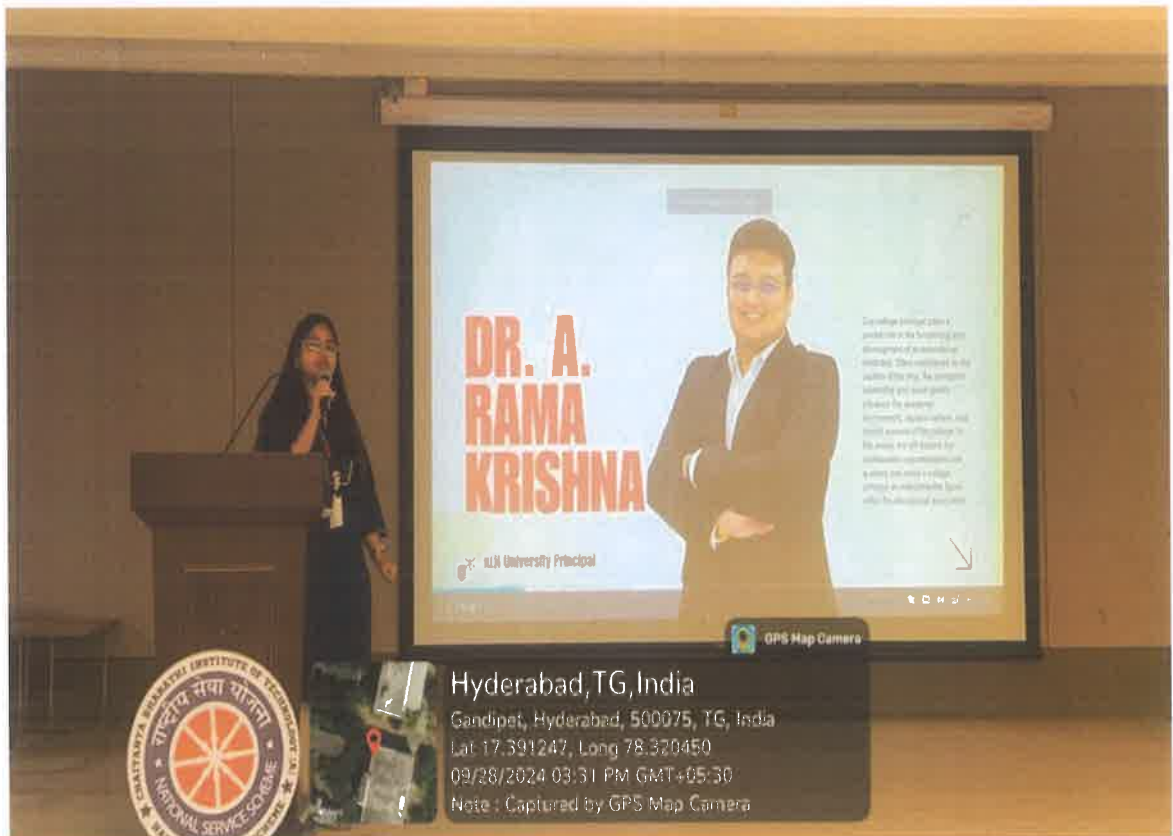

The event also motivated our NSS units to continue their efforts in serving society with even greater enthusiasm and dedication. This summit has set a strong foundation for future engagements and collaborations across NSS units.
