ABOUT THE EVENT

OBJECTIVES:

The objectives of the blood donation camp at KL University are to:

1. Save lives by collecting much-needed blood donations.
2. Promote awareness about the importance of regular blood donation.
3. Encourage voluntary participation from students, faculty, and the community.
4. Ensure a safe and efficient donation process with trained staff.
5. Contribute to the local healthcare system's blood supply.

EVENT:

Today, i.e., 30-09-2022, the NSS unit of KL deemed to be the University, Hyderabad has organized a blood donation camp in association with Lions Club, International Hyderabad Capital at 11.20 am in the Activity room.

The chief Dr. Sahul(MBBS, FIDM) and guest of honor Mr. Ratnam (senior technician camp organizer) members of Lions Club, International Hyderabad Capital graced the function. They were welcomed by giving saplings. Dr. M.P Malleesh, program officer, NSS unit, KL Hyderabad has briefed on the importance of blood donation in community service.

The blood donation was followed. As soon as the donors entered the hall their weight was checked and a form was filled out including their information. First, they were checked by the doctor if they were eligible to give blood or not. The students of age above 18 years and weight above 45kgs were only permitted to donate blood. It was also ensured that the donor had a proper breakfast and other nutritional conditions were examined carefully before permitting blood donation. After check-ups only they were allowed to donate blood. The safe hemoglobin levels of female donors were ensured for blood donation. The donors were given fruits and nutritional drinks to boost their energy post-blood donation.

Not only students but even teachers came forward to donate blood. In this program, Dr. L. Koteswar Rao – principal of KL College of Engineering, Dr.M.P Malleesh NSS program officer, and AO Paparao attended the program.

Certificates were given to blood donors as appreciation for their contribution. It is a pleasure to know that more than 100 students participated in this and made the event successful. Blood will help hundreds of people's life.
