ABOUT THE EVENT

Objectives

The main objectives of the Blood Donation camp conducted by KL Hyderabad NSS Unit were:

1. To create awareness among the students and staff members about the importance of donating blood.
2. To encourage people to donate blood voluntarily.
3. To collect blood and provide it to the needy.

EVENT DAY

The planning and preparation for the Blood Donation camp started a few weeks before the event. The NSS unit members prepared a list of potential donors, including students and staff members. They also created posters and flyers to promote the event.

The NSS unit members also collaborated with the local blood bank to provide necessary support and resources. They arranged for medical professionals to conduct the blood donation process and provided refreshments and snacks for the donors.

The Blood Donation camp started at 9:00 am on 15th May 2023. The NSS unit members were present at the venue to welcome the donors and guide them through the registration process. Medical professionals were also present to conduct the blood donation process.

The donors were given a brief on the blood donation process and its significance. The medical professionals checked the donors' vital parameters and eligibility to donate blood. Once cleared, the donors were taken to the blood donation area, where the blood donation process was carried out.

The Blood Donation camp conducted by KL Hyderabad NSS Unit was a grand success. The event achieved its objectives of creating awareness about blood donation and encouraging people to donate blood voluntarily. A large number of students and staff members participated in the event, and a significant amount of blood was collected.

The event also provided an opportunity for the NSS unit members to contribute to society and serve the community. The organizers ensured that all necessary precautions were taken to ensure the safety of the donors and medical professionals.
