ABOUT THE EVENT

OBJECTIVES:

The main objectives of NSS Activity Staff health check-ups at KL University are to promote staff well-being, identify health issues, encourage preventive care, and enhance overall productivity and morale.

EVENT:

The NSS (National Service Scheme) organized a Staff Health Camp at KL University, promoting well-being among our dedicated staff members. The event aimed to provide comprehensive healthcare services and raise awareness about the importance of maintaining good health.

The health camp featured a range of medical services, including general health check-ups, blood pressure monitoring, blood sugar tests, and BMI assessments. Expert medical professionals and nurses were on hand to offer personalized advice and address staff concerns. Additionally, informative sessions on stress management, nutrition, and exercise were conducted to promote a holistic approach to health.

The staff health camp witnessed enthusiastic participation, emphasizing the importance of proactive health management. It not only facilitated early detection of health issues but also encouraged preventive care practices. The event's success lies in fostering a culture of health consciousness among our staff, ultimately contributing to their well-being and enhancing overall productivity and morale within the KL University community.

OUTCOMES:

The Staff Health Camp by NSS at KL University resulted in improved health awareness among staff, early detection of health issues, and increased emphasis on preventive care. It boosted staff morale, productivity, and reinforced the importance of overall well-being within the university community.
